Launch of the First Edition of PreSense and its Objectives

On the suggestion of Dr APJ Abdul Kalam, Prime Point Foundation, a Chennai based Non-Governmental Organisation (N|GO) dedicated to create awareness on communication launched its first edition of the Digital-only monthly eMagazine PR-e-Sense for positive journalism. Dr Y S Rajan, (a close associate of Dr Abdul Kalam who also co-authored the book

'India 2020' with Dr Kalam) launched the eMagazine online on 6th March 2006. This marked the beginning of the journey of PreSense.

First edition – March 2006

September 2021.

Those were the nascent days for the concept of digital magazine, which itself was not popular. Even a few digital magazines published at that time could not survive for more than 3 to 4 months due to lack of experts willing to provide contents. This eMagazine has withstood all the challenges while successfully publishing the 175th edition in

First Edition to 175th Edition – a Challenging Journey

PR-e-Sense, featured thematic subjects, focussing on Communication, Journalism, and Media related subjects during the first 60 monthly editions. From the 61st edition, the eMagazine broad based its readership by publishing contents covering all subjects ranging from Current Affairs, Politics, Health, Indian Heritage, History, Science & Technology, Education, etc.

The tag line 'Communicate the Communication' was changed to 'Spreading the positive vibrations'. The title of the eMagazine 'PR-e-Sense' became 'PreSense' without changing the Masthead from the 61st edition.

Many eminent professionals, academicians, journalists, advocates are associated with the Editorial Board. PreSense is run by volunteers enthusiastically on a non-commercial basis and without soliciting advertisements. The editions are released on the first of every month consistently. Based on the feedback, the editorial team continues to improve upon the quality of the eMagazine to cater to the net-savvy readers. Today, PreSense is recognised as a pioneer in the eMagazine world for its high standards in its contents, as well as for its reach and usability.

Integration of Podcasts from Aug 2006

The concept of Podcasts emerged in early 2006. Against this backdrop, the editorial team of PReSense introduced the concept of interviews in audio and video podcasts in the eMagazine. From its August 2006 edition, the eMagazine published the text of interviews, with links to the corresponding podcasts, for the audio as well as video recordings of the interviews.

Introduction of Guest Editors from August 2007

The editorial team introduced guest editors from its August 2007 edition. PReSense has had the privilege of being guest edited by several eminent personalities like Mr. T. S. Krishnamurthy (Former Chief Election Commissioner of India), Mr. N. Vittal (Former Central Vigilance Commissioner of India), Dr. Y. S. Rajan (Scientist), Dr S K Kharventhan (Member of Parliament) as well as presidents of international organisations like Institute of Public Relations of Singapore, Public Relations Society of America, Chartered Institute of Public Relations, London and Public Relations Institute of South Africa. Young professionals and students were also given the opportunity to guest-edit the eMagazine, to give them the experience of writing and editing for a digital medium.

Change of Masthead in February 2008

New Masthead

In February 2008, with PReSense completing two years, it underwent another reform with the change in its masthead and the layout, to make it appear savvier to the readers.

The same Masthead continues till date.

PReSense had the privilege and honour of carrying an exclusive interview with Dr. Abdul Kalam, former President of India, in its second anniversary issue.

The interview was recorded over phone and the audio version also was integrated with the article.

Launch of Second Anniversary (Feb 2008) edition

The second anniversary issue (Feb 2008) was released on 1st March 2008 by Mr. N. Vittal, Former Central Vigilance Commissioner of India in the presence of Shri T S Krishnamurthy (Former Chief Election Commissioner of India), Dr U Srinivasa Raghavan (Former Chairman of Indian Postal Board) and Shri Yogesh Joshi (Chairman of Association of Business Communicators of India). The association of these eminent personalities with the eMagazine enhanced its prevailing credibility among the readers.

Digital Media Partnership with Global events

PreSense continued to win increasing recognition among the literary and corporate readers and in April 2008, several international organisations approached the editorial team for the association of PR eSense as Digital media partner in global events. Normally, only print and television media are preferred by international organisations for media partnership. For the first time in the world, an eMagazine, viz. PR eSense became the media partner in 2008 for the international conferences organised by Chartered Institute of Public Relations at London in UK, and by Public Relations Society of America at Detroit in USA. Thereafter, PR eSense was invited to be the Digital media partner for several other international conferences held in different countries like South Africa, Singapore, etc.

On the suggestion of Dr. Abdul Kalam, PR eSense introduced cartoons in its July 2008 edition. Mr Triambak Sharma, a noted cartoonist and editor of Cartoonwatch, a cartoon magazine at Raipur, created a new cartoon character, PRince. PRince was launched by Dr Abdul Kalam himself at Rajbhavan, Chennai. The Cartoon Character Prince was designed similar to cartoon character 'Common Man' of R K Laxman. But Prince represents the aspirations of the youth of the country. PRince Cartoon is being featured regularly in its monthly editions. PR eSense has published 160 PRince Cartoons, highlighting topical themes, till the September 2021.

Change in Layout in September 2008

The layout of PReSense changed again in September 2008, with the introduction of the photograph of the Guest Editor on the cover page. This gesture proved to be an incentive for many budding professionals, who volunteered to be guest editors for PReSense.

Some of the absorbing topics covered in PReSense include corporate arrogance, corporate idiosyncrasies, education loan, business communication, corporate governance, internal communication, Social media, Journalism, and media relations. These topics aroused the curiosity and interest among many of its corporate readers.

Awards and Recognition

PReSense has won several awards, accrediting the high quality of its contents and its popularity among its readers.

It has won awards from Global Forum for Public Relations, Public Relations Council of India and Association of Business Communicators of India.

Many of the Corporate bodies and Communication organisations invited the Editorial Team to share the Digital Media experience, as PReSense was a pioneer in this domain.

Launch of 50th (Golden Jubilee) edition in May 2010

Coinciding with the commemoration of the Golden Jubilee of PreSense in May 2010, Prime Point Foundation and PreSense instituted the Sansad Ratna Awards to honour top performing Lok Sabha Members of Parliament. The 50th edition of PReSense was launched at the Awards' function by Mr. T. S. Krishna Murthy and Mr. N. Gopalaswamy, (both former Chief Election Commissioners of India). With the Diamond Jubilee edition, PreSense completed five years of its uninterrupted journey.

Dr Abdul Kalam cites cartoon character Prince in public speech

Interestingly, Dr A P J Abdul Kalam himself was one of the great fans of Cartoon Character PRince. While addressing the Cartoon Festival at New Delhi on 29th April 2011, Dr Abdul Kalam suggested that cartoonists should be remembered for creating cartoon characters like 'Common Man' and 'PRince'. (Screenshot of his message below).

Brief Break after 5 years of Continuous Journey

Soon thereafter, the team deliberated over the challenges of sustaining the quality of the eMagazine within the format of its contents, especially the themes, which had to be unique and varied, to cater to an audience that was niche. At this stage, the editorial team decided on a hiatus for the eMagazine, to take time to plan a revised format that will cater to a larger and more diverse audience.

Re-starting the Journey with 61st Edition in New Format

The editorial team resumed PreSense in April 2012 with the 61st edition, coinciding with the Sansad Ratna Awards 2012 to the top performing MPs. The tag line 'Communicate the Communication' used in the first 60 editions of the eMagazine was changed to 'Spreading Positive Vibrations'. Though the masthead continued to be the same, the name of the eMagazine was changed from "PR-e-Sense" (while reading, PR pause e pause sense) to Pre-Sense (while reading, Pre pause Sense).

The format of the contents of the eMagazine changed in its 62nd edition. and PreSense still continues in the revised format. The PreSense edition carries contents from different domains including Health, Current Affairs, Economics, Politics, Governance, Heritage, History, Technology, etc. The new format has interested a larger audience of readers. The contents cater to readers of different age-groups. PreSense is widely shared through emails and the social media.
